1.3.194
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant
Theodore Cottingham, October 2, 2005 1am
www.unc.bz

1. My who come in the name of My Lord comes in Me.
My who comes in the name of the Lord comes to Me.
My who comes in the name of the Lord comes through Me.

2. I love you, Me'd one, Me'ing others and substituting no others for Me, having Me only before you, in your eyes Mine. Your mind being Mine. Mine yours. See what I have said and select not the proper from unproper-thought but take Me as I am, words and all, or don't take Me. I am My word.

3. They who come must come in spirit and truth.
They who come must come in spirit and truth.
They who come must become spirit and truth.

4. See Me. I love you unafraid fearless who torments none, yet allows no torment to touch him, dead to every word of My-mouth-not, alive to it; dead to every word of man, slain; every emotion, thought, substance of man slain and subservient made to the Kingdom of Heaven; who has no servants. I love you.

5. Thou hast made a holy decision and into Me come for the/My Kingdom, at hand/in you/and is, and was, and is coming again, and again. I love you.

6. Taught of Me by Me, for you to receive My all. No other can.
I largesse. They have it/Me not at this level, for I/we broke all the rules, the rules thought rules perpetuated upon My lambs. I love you.

7. Rulebreaker of restrictors.
I love you.